About the Outdoor School

The Salmon Outdoor School provides hands-on ancestral living experiences that bring history alive. Registration is required and first come, first serve. Each class begins at 10:00 am at the Outdoor School unless otherwise noted. Check to see if your class is “drop-in” any time throughout the day or not. Programs typically last about 2 hrs. Most projects will not be completed in this time and students are welcome to spend more time onsite to finish their projects. Outdoor School programs are designed for people ages 8 to adult. Younger children may attend a program if accompanied and supervised by an adult. Program with a ($) indicate a $6 fee unless otherwise noted. We happily accept donations for all other programs. If space is available you are welcome to register onsite the morning of the program but we strongly advise pre-registration.

Lemhi County History Month

Brought to you by the Lemhi County Historical Society & Museum and the Sacajawea Center.

Thursday, June 7 & 15: Evening Programs 7pm at the Salmon Grange, stay tuned for more details on our website!

Thursday, June 21: Dr. Gary Moulton presents, “Onomastics of an Indian Woman” The term “onomastics” relates to the study of names---place-names usually, but also to personal names. Dr. Moulton was led to this topic when he wondered if during the Lewis and Clark expedition, terms for Sacagawea changed over time and if those changes were the result of circumstances. After examining all references to her in the journals, Dr. Moulton suggestions answers to his queries. 7pm at City Center

Saturday June 24: Lewis & Clark Trail Field Trip! $50.00 per person includes bus ride, lunch and presentation. To reserve a spot contact Lin at the Sacajawea Center 756-1188. Pre-payment required.
